July 2010

Several years ago, as my friend borrowed my riding mower, he told me he would treat it as if it were his own while it was in his care. I told him, no, I want you to treat it as if it were MINE while in your care! The point was that we all seem to take better care of things that belong to other people than we do our own. That's how I feel about your lodge. It is truly an honor to serve as Master for the new Masonic year. All I can offer is my sincere pledge that I will always do my best to keep your lodge vibrant and active. We have a great team in place, and I plan to fully rely on all of their various talents. I feel confident that this new slate of officers will deliver great things. So that's my pledge, and my officers' pledge, now it's down to you. Brothers and Sisters, I urge you, even challenge you, to come to any of the many events hosted by Roy Stanly Lodge. I can promise that you will pleased with what you find. Even if you, or you and your family, are able to attend something only once in a blue moon, it is still worth all our hard work. Last year, our little lodge achieved state-wide notoriety in the form of "Vanguard" status, which is recognition from the Grand Lodge for being so active and engaged. But a better reward would be to see you in person, on those occasions when you are able to join us.

Respectfully,
Ron Wise, WM Elect

Reflections

A year ago I sat down to write my first article for this newsletter. At the time I was filled with deep sadness at the loss of my dear friend Corydon Taylor, but at the same time, I was also full of hope for the coming year. Well, here we are a year later and although I am still saddened, and always will be, at the loss of Cory, I can look back with pride at all the things we were able to accomplish during this seemingly short year.

We had our annual blood drive, In October we had our Masons for a Safe Halloween program, We continued our charitable works by working the SMU football games and hosting our first annual Roy Stanley “Shootin ducks” sporting clays tournament, Thanks to the donation of one of our brothers Roy Stanley was able to spread much needed items to the local schools, care homes, and churches of our community, We hosted a Masonic Services Bureau meeting, We have initiated 11 men into the fraternity and 5 of them have been raised to Master Mason, and last but not least we accomplished one of Corydon’s main goals by achieving the honor of being a Vanguard lodge for this year.

I want to thank everyone for their hard work over the past year and can only look forward to all we are going to accomplish with this new one.

Team Roy Stanley is in 1st Place in Division 14C

What do we mean by “Team Roy Stanley?” A group of Masons gathered together to play ball in a league of their own! We need you to get off of the bleachers, join the fun, and decide at what position you can perform best. We need dedicated players; anyone can be a spectator! After the “All-Stars” play their game, July 10th, we will reassess the team, rotate old positions, and create new ones. The team manager is the one who seeks those available for play, and evaluates who is best to equip our “Vanguard” team!

As we approach the ” All-Star” game in our regular season of play, we are confident we will continue to have many more successful innings. We have made many trades this year, not only increasing our roster each month, but also taking our players out of the dug out, and raising them to be “Masters” at their positions. The owners, manager, and players hope to expand our number of games with new committees and positions in several fields of endeavor. We will upgrade equipment, revise our rules of protocol and fomulate healthy new ideas, the result of active dialogue between manager, owners and players, as we seek new areas of community and team involvement. How is your game?

Team updates will follow monthly: “No Walks or Balks just Balls, Strikes, and Homers!” in July.
